NEWS SERVICE DELIVERY

STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The AIR News service is available to the following:
Licensed Australian Radio Stations
Australian based Internet only Radio Stations

1/ Quotation: Any quotation provided to a potential client in regard to provision of News and Information services is valid for 90 days from the date of the quotation.

2/ If quotation is accepted then a commencement date must be agreed upon and a service agreement completed and signed by both parties. The service agreement usually covers the first 12 months and upon maturation may be terminated with 90 days notice by either party beyond that time unless client defaults on account payment.

3/ The first invoice will be delivered prior to the commencement date and must be paid prior to the commencement date.

4/ Subsequent invoices will be issued at the commencement of each Calendar month and fall due on the 14th of the month. Payment by direct deposit is preferred.

5/ Any delinquency beyond 30 days may result in the service being suspended until the account is brought up to date. No credit for "days off" will be given.

6/ beyond the end of the standard agreement either party may terminate with 90 days notice and the payment of fees for the 90 day period.

7/ The service may not be forwarded from a client to any other entity for rebroadcast or delivery via the Internet. Any breach will be regarded as serious misconduct and will be pursued to the full extent of the law.

8/ The service will consist of an agreed monthly News fee inclusive of GST. For Community Radio Stations there will be an AAP copyright fee component added to the fee each month. For Commercial Radio Stations and Internet Radio stations may have an AAP fee added or be required to take an additional direct agreement with AAP.

9/ The agreement is for non-exclusivity in the broadcast area of the station.
